CORPORATE STRUCTURE

2.1 Name, Address and Incorporation

Cascades Inc. was incorporated under the name Papier Cascades Inc./Cascades Paper Inc. under the laws of the Province of Québec by letters patent issued on March 26, 1964. Supplementary letters patent were issued on March 11, 1968, July 4, 1979 and October 19, 1979 to amend the authorized capital stock and the restrictions and privileges attached to certain classes of shares of the Corporation.

Cascades was continued under the name Cascades Inc. under Part 1A of the Companies Act (Québec) by Certificate of Continuance dated October 26, 1982. Certificates of Amendment were issued on July 5, 1984, September 16, 1985 and May 13, 1986 to permit the subdivision of the Corporation's Common Shares, as well as on July 15, 1992, July 24, 1992, December 17, 1992 and July 20, 1993 in order to modify the authorized share-capital and/or the restrictions and privileges of certain classes of shares of the Corporation.

On December 30, 2003, in accordance with Article 123.129 of the Companies Act (Québec), Cascades, by simplified amalgamation, merged with 9135-2591 Québec Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of the Corporation. The articles of amalgamation and schedules as well as the composition of the Board of Directors of the new company following the amalgamation remained exactly the same as those of Cascades Inc. prior to the amalgamation.

Since February 14, 2011, all Québec corporations incorporated under Part 1A of the Companies Act (Québec) are governed by the Business Corporations Act (Québec).

GENERAL DEVELOPMENT OF THE BUSINESS

3.1 Corporation's Three Year History

Financing activities

Bank Financing

On April 30, 2021, the Corporation entered into an agreement with its lenders to extend and amend its existing $750 million revolving credit facility. The amendment extends the term on the facility to July 7, 2025. The financial conditions remain unchanged.

On October 19, 2022, the Corporation entered into an agreement with its lenders for its existing credit agreement to increase its authorized term loan to US$260 million from US$160 million and to extend the maturity from December 2025 to December 2027. Concurrently, the Corporation extended its existing $750 million revolving credit facility maturity from July 2025 to July 2026. The financial conditions of both facilities remain unchanged.

Debt Refinancing

On August 17, 2020, the Corporation announced that it had completed its private offering of US$300 million aggregate principal amount of 5.375% senior notes due in 2028. The new notes were issued at a price of 104.25%, resulting in an effective yield of 4.69%. Transaction fees amounted to $4 million. The net proceed from the notes offering was used by the Corporation to redeem all of its outstanding 5.75% US$200 million senior notes due in 2023 and repay certain amounts outstanding under its revolving credit facility.

On December 11, 2020, Greenpac entered into an agreement with its lenders to extend and amend its credit facilities. The amended credit agreement still provides Greenpac with a revolving credit of US$50 million while the principal of the term loan was reduced, with cash on hand and utilization of the revolving line of credit, to US$75 million, from US$122 million at the time of the amendment. The term of the amended credit agreement is extended to December 2023. The financing terms and conditions remain essentially unchanged.

On November 9, 2021, the Corporation completed the partial redemption of its unsecured senior notes. The transaction was settled on November 10, 2021 and the Corporation redeemed US$144 million ($180 million) and US$155 million ($192 million) of its 2026 and 2028 unsecured senior notes, respectively.

Corporate Activities

On October 5, 2020, to finance the equity portion of the Bear Island project, the Corporation entered into an agreement with underwriters pursuant to which the Corporation issued and the underwriters purchased on a bought deal basis 7,441,000 common shares at a price of $16.80 per common share for gross proceeds of $125 million.

The results of the Boxboard Europe segment are presented as discontinued operations since the second quarter of 2021 with reclassification of the first quarter of 2021, as well as the comparative years 2020 and 2019.

On April 8, 2022, STANDARD & POOR'S revised the Corporation's outlook to "stable" from "positive" on cost headwinds and reaffirmed its 'BB-' rating.

Packaging Products Sector

Containerboard Packaging Group

The Bear Island strategic investment in the conversion of assets to recycled containerboard production is progressing well despite the current environment of important cost inflation and delays in the completion of certain construction milestones due to labour and material availability. The initial total investment of $475 million (US$380 million) was revised upward in the second quarter of 2022 to a range of $595 - $615 million (US$470 - US$485 million) following significant inflationary pressure on construction costs and supply chain constraints causing delays in the delivery of materials. The cost of the project is now revised to $675 - $690 million (US$515 - US$525 million) due to delays and additional work required to complete the project.

The announced start-up date of the facility was planned for December 14, 2022. However, the above-mentioned factors continued to persist in the third quarter of 2022 and as a result, the start-up of the project is scheduled for the end of March 2023. The Corporation is working closely with contractors to mitigate further potential delay caused by these elements.

Since 2018 we have invested a total of $512 million ($335 million in 2022). The project incurred $12 million of operational costs in 2022 and $6 million in 2021.

The Corporation exercised its option to purchase the 20.20% interest in Greenpac Holding LLC ("Greenpac") held by the Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec (CDPQ) on November 30, 2019 for an exercise price of US$93 million ($121 million). The transaction closed January 3, 2020 and increased the Corporation's direct and indirect ownership interest in Greenpac to 86.35%.

On May 26, 2020, the Corporation announced the closure of the Brown Containerboard Packaging facility located in Burlington, Ontario, Canada, as part of the Corporation's continuing optimization initiatives for its Containerboard Packaging business. Production was redeployed to our other units in Ontario, Canada.

On July 28, 2020, the Corporation announced the closure of its Etobicoke, Ontario, Canada, Containerboard Packaging facility as part of the strategic repositioning of its containerboard platform in Ontario, Canada. Operations permanently closed in June 2021 and production capacity has been redeployed to other units within the region.

Tissue Sector

On October 8, 2020, the Corporation announced the forthcoming closure of its tissue production and converting operations at its Ransom and Pittston plants, located in Pennsylvania, USA. Operations ceased in December 2020 and January 2021 and volume has been transferred to other plants.

On November 25, 2020, the Corporation announced the forthcoming closure of its tissue converting operations of its Laval plant, located in Québec, Canada. Operations ceased June 30, 2021 and volume has been transferred to other plants.

3.2 Significant Acquisitions

No significant acquisition was completed by the Corporation during the year ended December 31, 2022 for which disclosure would have been required under Part 8 of National Instrument 51-102 of the Canadian Securities Administrators, namely the filing of a Business Acquisition Report.

3.3 Trends

Reference is made to Management's Discussion and Analysis in the 2022 Annual Report, specifically on page 11 under the heading "NEAR-TERM OUTLOOK", which is incorporated by reference.

SECTION 4

DESCRIPTION OF THE BUSINESS

4.1 General

Established in 1964, Cascades is the parent company of a North American group of companies involved in the production, conversion and marketing of packaging products and tissue papers principally composed of recycled fibre. In 2022, Cascades consumed approximately 2.5 million short tons of fibre. Recycled fibre, wood fibre (chips and logs) and virgin pulp respectively accounted for 80%, 11% and 9% of the total fibre consumption. Cascades sources its supply of recycled fibre through its own recovery network as well as through mid- to long-term agreements with independent suppliers. Cascades sources its supply of wood fibre and pulp through contractual agreements with independent sawmills, timberland owners and pulp producers.

Cascades conducts its business principally through three (3) reporting groups in two (2) operating sectors, namely:

- 1) The Packaging Products sector which includes:
 - i) The Containerboard Packaging Group, a manufacturer of containerboard and leading converter of corrugated products in North America; and
 - ii) The Specialty Products Group, which manufactures industrial and consumer packaging products.
- 2) The Tissue Papers sector which includes the Tissue Group, a manufacturer and converter of tissue papers for the Away-from-Home and Consumer Products markets.

The Corporation has close to 80 operating units located in Canada and the United States. As of December 31, 2022, the Corporation employed approximately 10,000 employees at its Canadian and United States operations. Approximately 30% of the Corporation's workforce is unionized under 29 separate collective bargaining agreements. Of the 29 collective bargaining agreements in North America, 8 are expired and are currently under negotiation, 9 will expire in 2023 and 8 will expire in 2024.

Cascades sets the overall strategic guidelines and ensures that corporate policies concerning acquisition and financing strategies, legal affairs, human resources management and environmental protection are applied by its subsidiaries, divisions, joint ventures and associates.

4.2.3 Recovery and Recycling

The recovery and recycling sub-segment employs more than 1,000 employees and provides services to recover and process discarded materials for the municipal, industrial, commercial and institutional sectors. Services are offered across Canada and the Northeastern United States through eighteen (18) recovery facilities. In 2022, this sub-segment processed, brokered and bought over 3.0 million short tons of fibre.

4.3 Research, Development and Innovation

Cascades has its own research and development centre located in Kingsey Falls (Québec) and is composed of 70 employees. It provides Cascades' business units with technical support in solving production problems and improving quality as well as the development of new products and processes. Moreover, it is strongly involved in innovation and sustainable development through its scientific and technical support to the Corporation's marketing and innovation teams. Cascades also put in place a centralized work team, the CIC (Cascades Innovation Center), to develop and support innovation within the Groups. The team includes specialists in market research as well as product development.

4.4 Competitive Conditions

4.4.1 Our Markets

Cascades operates in large, highly competitive markets. Our products and services compete with similar products manufactured and distributed by other companies, both domestically and globally. The level of a company's success in our markets is influenced by many factors, including customer service, price, geographic location, quality, breadth and performance characteristics of our products. Given our products, integration level, markets and geographic diversification, we believe that we are well-positioned to compete in our targeted packaging and tissue sectors.

According to RISI, the Fibre Box Association and the Canadian Corrugated and Containerboard Association ("CCCA"), the total containerboard production in North America was approximately 40.1 million tons in 2022 while total containerboard production capacity totaled approximately 45.4 million tons. We estimate that the largest manufacturers, namely International Paper Company, WestRock Company and Packaging Corporation of America account for approximately 65% of total production capacity. Total North American containerboard production decreased by 5.1% in 2022. With respect to demand, while the containerboard market is cyclical and impacted by economic conditions, it tends to be more resilient given that approximately 75% of the end demand for corrugated boxes comes from the non-durable goods industries according to the Fibre Box Association.

According to RISI, demand in the U.S. tissue paper market reached approximately 10.1 million tons in 2022. Tissue production totaled approximately 9.5 million tons during the same period, which represented 93.0% of the total available mill capacity of 10.2 million tons. We estimate the five largest manufacturers, Georgia-Pacific LLC, The Procter & Gamble Company, Kimberly-Clark Corporation, Cascades Inc. and Essity to account for approximately 68% of total production capacity. The tissue paper market consists of the Consumer Products market and the Away-from-Home market. Shipments of Consumer Products and Away-from-Home tissue products represented approximately 68% and 32%, respectively, of total U.S. tissue paper shipments in 2022.

4.4.2 Our Competitive Strengths

Leading Market Positions with Environmentally Sustainable Product Focus. We are a leader in Canada and hold one of the leading market positions in the packaging industry in North America. We believe our leading market positions and our environmental focus give us an advantage over many of our competitors. We believe the demand for green products is growing and we are well-positioned to take advantage of the growing environmental trend due to our strengths and diversity of product offerings.

Integrated Recycling Solutions Provider. We are an integrated manufacturer with both downstream recycled paper collection and processing capabilities and upstream manufacturing and converting operations. We have created the closed-loop system™ that enables us to manufacture our products efficiently for our customers. In North America, much of the recycled fibre that we use in our products come from our own recovery facilities. We continually look for opportunities to increase our integration to further ensure the supply of raw materials to our mills and grow the development of our environmentally sustainable products.

Diversified Portfolio of Products, Markets and Geographic Locations. We manufacture and sell a diversified portfolio of packaging, tissue and specialty packaging products for commercial, industrial and consumer product end markets in Canada, the United States and other regions. Our customers include Fortune 500, medium and small-sized companies that operate across a broad range of industries. We believe that our product, geographic and customer diversification help us maintain our operating performance through economic downturns and changing market conditions. The size and diversity of our operations also allow us to cost-effectively serve customers on a regional and multinational basis, reducing delivery times and enhancing customer service.

Strong Presence in Consumer-Oriented End Markets. Our packaging, tissue and other products are sold primarily to consumer-oriented end markets, which tend to be less sensitive to economic cycles. As a result, products sold to these markets tend to exhibit a greater degree of stability and predictability in demand and product prices than products sold to commercial or industrial-oriented end markets.

4.5 Cyclical Considerations

Although the Corporation believes that its products, integration level, market, and geographical diversification help to mitigate the adverse effects of industry conditions, the markets, for some of its products, notably containerboard, remain cyclical. These markets are influenced by changes in the North American and global economies, industry capacity and inventory levels maintained by customers, all of which affect selling prices and profitability. The Corporation is also affected by the variation of the Canadian dollar against the U.S. dollar, and the effect of the volatility of the costs of raw materials, particularly recycled fibre and virgin pulp, transportation and energy prices.

4.6 Environmental Protection

4.6.1 Regulations

The Corporation's activities are subject to environmental laws and regulations imposed by various governmental and regulatory authorities in all the countries where it operates. The Corporation is in compliance, in all material respects, with all applicable environmental legislation and regulations. However, ongoing capital and operating expenses are expected to be incurred to achieve and maintain compliance with applicable environmental requirements. For more information, reference is made to the heading "RISK FACTORS", on page 36 of Management's Discussion and Analysis in the 2022 Annual Report, which item is incorporated by reference.

4.6.2 Commitment to Sustainable Development

Since one of the deeply ingrained values of the Corporation is protecting the environment, Cascades has adopted a Sustainable Development Plan and a Commitment to Sustainable Development, which are available on the Corporation's website at www.cascades.com. For more information, reference is made to the heading 6 "CORPORATE GOVERNANCE" of the Management Proxy Circular for the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, which item is incorporated by reference.

4.7 Reorganizations

In 2022, no major legal reorganizations were undertaken by Cascades. In the normal course of business, some reorganizations of the subsidiaries of the Corporation could occasionally occur in order to improve the organizational structure, none of them having a material impact on the activities, operations or financial results of the Corporation.

4.8 Social Policies

In 2017, the Corporation adopted a revised Code of Ethics and Business Conduct (the "Code"), which is meant to provide directors, officers, employees and consultants with general guidelines for acceptable behaviour in all relationships with each other, customers, suppliers, partners, and the communities where the Corporation operates. A copy of the Code is available on the Corporation's website at www.cascades.com.

In 2018, the Corporation adopted a Commitment on Human Rights (the "Commitment") whereby the Corporation recognizes the importance of protecting and promoting fundamental human rights and the role it can play in upholding these rights, both within its facilities and in its supply chain. A copy of the Commitment is available on the Corporation's website at www.cascades.com.

In 2019, the Corporation adopted a Policy on workplace diversity and inclusion which establishes the Corporation's commitment to provide an equitable work environment and career opportunities regardless of gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religious beliefs or family or economic status. In addition, the Corporation adopted a Practice on the representation of women (the "Practice") which reinforces the commitment to providing a fair, equitable and respectful workplace where women are supported in an inclusive environment, where they are recognized on the basis of their individual merit, and where they can advance and succeed. A copy of the Policy and Practice are available on the Corporation's website at www.cascades.com.

In 2020, the Corporation adopted a Policy Regarding Diversity on the Board based on the belief that gender diversity is an important attribute of a well-functioning Board. The Board is fully committed to ensuring that women are well represented on the Board in keeping with the aforementioned Policy. A copy of the Policy is available on the Corporation's website at www.cascades.com.

4.9 Risk Factors

We refer the reader to Management's Discussion and Analysis in the 2022 Annual Report, specifically on page 36 under the heading "RISK FACTORS", incorporated by reference herein.

DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

Beginning in the third quarter of 2019, Cascades increased its quarterly dividend from $0.04 to $0.08 per Common Share. Beginning in the third quarter of 2021, Cascades increased its quarterly dividend to $0.12 per Common Share. Other than pursuant to the Indentures, which govern its Senior Notes, and the Credit Facilities, there are no material contractual restrictions on Cascades' ability to declare and pay dividends on its Common Shares.

The dividend amount is reviewed annually by the Board of Directors and is determined taking into account Cascades' financial situation, its results from operations, its capital requirements and any other factor deemed pertinent by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 6

CAPITAL STRUCTURE

6.1 General description of capital structure

The share capital of the Corporation is composed of an unlimited number of Common Shares without par value, an unlimited number of Class "A" Preferred Shares without par value which may be issued in series and an unlimited number of Class "B" Preferred Shares without par value which may be issued in series.

The holders of common shares are entitled to the right to vote on the basis of one vote per share at any meetings of shareholders and the right to receive dividends and to share in the remaining assets in the event of a liquidation of the Corporation. As of March 15, 2023, there were 100,361,627 Common Shares issued and outstanding.

The Class "A" and "B" Preferred Shares are issuable in series and rank equally within their respective classes as to dividends and capital. Registered holders of any series of Class "A" or Class "B" are entitled to receive, in each fiscal year of the Corporation or on any other basis, cumulative or non-cumulative preferred dividends payable at the time, at the rates and for such amounts and at the place or places determined by the directors with respect to each series prior to the issuance of any Class "A" or Class "B" Preferred Shares. In the event of the liquidation, winding-up or dissolution of the Corporation or any other distribution of its assets to its shareholders, the holders of Class "A" and "B" Preferred Shares are entitled to receive, out of the assets of the Corporation, the amount paid in consideration of each share held by them. The holders of Class "A" and "B" Preferred Shares are not entitled as such to receive notice of or to attend or to vote at any meetings of shareholders. None of the Class "A" or "B" Preferred Shares of the capital stock of the Corporation are, as of the date hereof, issued and outstanding.

6.2 Ratings

Credit ratings are intended to provide investors with an independent measure of credit quality of an issuer or a security. Rating for issuers or for debt instruments are presented in ranges by each of the rating agencies. The highest qualities of securities are rated AAA in the case of Standard & Poor's ("S&P"), or Aaa in the case of Moody's Investors Service ("Moody's"). The lowest quality of securities are rated D in the case of S&P, or C in the case of Moody's.

According to the S&P rating system (http://www.spratings.com/en_US/understanding-ratings), corporations or notes rated BB, B, CCC, CC, and C are regarded as having from low to significant speculative characteristics. A BB rating indicates the least degree of speculation and C the highest. While such corporations or notes will likely have some quality and protective characteristics, these may be outweighed by large uncertainties or major exposures to adverse conditions. The ratings from AAA to B may be modified by the addition of a plus (+) or minus (-) to show relative standing within the major rating categories.

According to the Moody's rating system (<https://www.moodys.com/Pages/amr002002.aspx>), corporations or notes, which are rated Ba, are judged to have speculative elements; their future cannot be considered as well assured. Often the protection of interest and principal payments may be very moderate, and thereby not well safeguarded during both good and bad times over the future. Uncertainty of position characterizes bonds in this class. Moody's applies numerical modifiers 1, 2, and 3 in each generic rating classification from Aa through Caa. The modifier 1 indicates that the obligation ranks in the higher end of its generic rating category; the modifier 2 indicates a mid-range ranking and the modifier 3 indicates a ranking in the lower end of that generic rating category.

Credit Risk	Moody's	S & P
Highest quality	Aaa	AAA
High quality (very strong)	Aa	AA
Upper medium grade (strong)	A	A
Medium grade	Baa	BBB
Lower medium grade (somewhat speculative)	Ba	BB
Low grade (speculative)	B	B
Poor quality (may default)	Caa	CCC
Most speculative	Ca	CC
No interest being paid or bankruptcy petition filed	C	C
In default	C	D

Moody's	Ba2	Stable	May 2015

It is to be noted that the credit ratings given by the rating agencies are not recommendations to purchase, hold or sell Cascades' notes or securities as such, given these ratings do not comment as to market price or suitability for a particular investor. There is no assurance that any rating will remain in effect for any given period of time or that any rating will not be revised or withdrawn by a rating agency in the future if in its judgment circumstances so warrant. The Corporation is not responsible for credit ratings given by the rating agencies.
