Dear supplier,

As a publicly traded company, Cascades must comply with very high standards when it comes to disclosure and transparency regarding its financial health. This public information is available on this website in the Financial Reports section. You can also access this information through other resources, such as Cascades' Annual Reports, The System for Electronic Document Analysis and Retrieval (SEDAR), or Dun & Bradstreet.

All of this information being public and available, our policy is not to produce credit references.

We are sincerely hoping for the opportunity to have you as one of our suppliers.

Best regards,
